

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Friday 15th November

Notices and reminders

- School photographs - The deadline for ordering photographs (for free delivery to school) is Wednesday 20th November, any orders after this date will incur a delivery fee.
- Parent Survey - Thank you so much to the parents who have already completed our parent survey. It is important to us as a school that we take opportunities to improve and develop our offer, by finding out what our parents think. If you have time, and it should only take a few minutes, please could I ask you to fill out the parent survey using the link below:

On Tuesday, we came together to show our support for Anti-Bullying Week by wearing our odd socks with pride! A fun way to celebrate our differences and remind everyone that it's ok to be unique.

Remembrance Sunday

Last Sunday, our Head boy, Head girl and additional Year 6 supporters attended the Remembrance Service at the Cenotaph. We are very proud of the children for representing our school in such a respectful manner.

Some Upcoming Dates to be aware of (please see below for a full parent calendar - new information added)

- 20th Nov - Photograph order deadline for free delivery
- 25th, 28th, 29th Nov - Class Library visits

Weekly Attendance:

Our whole school attendance for this week is 96.5%.

Well done to Kestrels for having the highest attendance this week with 98.3%.

Star of the week:

Kestrels: Hope
Ravens: Miley M
Falcons: Molly

Worker of the week:

Kestrels: Emily H
Ravens: Jorge
Falcons: Isla M

On Tuesday, our Key Stage Two children visited Halton Library to meet local children's author Marie Basting. The children played games based around the themes of Marie's books - The Ancient Romans and Greek Gods. You can find more information about Marie and her books by visiting her website - <https://mariebasting.com/>

This week, Falcons visited the Royal British Legion Museum. They explored World War II through engaging and enjoyable activities. Students examined fascinating artefacts, enhancing their understanding of the war and Remembrance Day. It was a memorable trip that deepened their appreciation for history and those who served.
